

1.1 What is the purpose of these guidelines?

These guidelines set out additional, statutory, quality assurance guidelines specific to institutes of technology. These additional QA guidelines address the responsibilities of institutes of technology in the context of delegation of authority to make awards. They also address the institutes of technology as experienced higher education institutions seeking to continuously improve and enhance their internal quality assurance system.