

5.6 Complaints

Clear mechanisms should be established for apprentices to make complaints against their education and training providers, their employers or about the lack of integration of their programme between these parties.