

1.1 What is the purpose of these guidelines?

These guidelines set out additional statutory quality assurance guidelines specific to education and training boards. These additional QA guidelines address the responsibilities of education and training boards as significant public body providers in the education and training sector with responsibilities for further education and training.